Marine Takes Marine Bride

On the eve of his departure last week for Japan with the Third Marine Division, Sgt. Hunter M. Anderson, 22, of 8225 N. Central Ave., married Miss Irene B. Mitzler, 22, also a marine sergeant stationed in the Pentagon, Washington, D. C. Sergeant Anderson is the son of Hunter Anderson, widely known newspaperman, and Gracia Anderson, formerly of Mexico City.

Anderson

Sergeant Anderson was an honor graduate of Phoenix Union High School where he was selected as supreme court justice in Boy's State. Later he attended Phoenix College and Arizona State College at Tempe, until he was called into the service. After his discharge he plans to attend the University of California, Berkeley, where he will major in chemical engineering.

His bride, Irene, was born and educated in Washington, D. C. After serving two years in Germany with the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, she became a member of the U.S. Marines where she was rapidly promoted to the rank of staff sergeant in charge of secretarial work. Both of the newlyweds received their marine training in San Diego.
